"DOUBTLESS THE

Best Cough Medicine

IN THE WORLD."

[From one of the Oldest and very best Houses in America.]

Messrs. CUTLER BROS. & Co.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 15, 1872.

Please send us Ten gross small and Five gross large "Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam." This is doubtless the best Cough Medicine in the World. (Signed) ALLEN & CO.

P. S.—These parties have sold this Balsam for over thirty years.

[From one of Boston's most estimable citizens.] No. 4 Worcester Sq., BOSTON, March 14, 1873. Messrs. CUTLER BROS. & Co. In ordering another small lot of your invaluable

Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam,

I should like to tell you what I know about it, in order that others may have the benefit of my EXPERIENCE.

Since this Balsam first came to my notice, in 1848, I have kept it constantly in the house, [illegible] allowing myself to be out of it overnight. In all these

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS,

it has not failed in a single instance, in my own case, to give the desired relief, and I can say the same in regard to my mother, whose by it as I cannot but think. Hers was a case of Congestion of the Lungs, which, although attended by a most skillful Physician, who seemed to fail only slightly, so that we [illegible] her recovery, when an old friend [illegible] persuaded her to try this Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. The result was most gratifying, I assure you.

LIFE WAS SAVED

RELIEF WAS IMMEDIATE

and now, by [illegible], though now over 80 years old, and is active and well. [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

With it the

IMAGINATION

is at once subdued, and a good night's sleep [illegible]. I will mention, [illegible] a young lady [illegible] and is living now. [illegible]

Taken in full doses on retiring for the night, it will be found to exert the most powerful influence on the organs of circulation and perspiration. Perspiration flows from every part of the body, a glow of heat extends from head to foot, every muscle and fibre is relaxed and in a state of the most gratifying repose, while pain and soreness of the bones and muscles disappear, and the poor sufferer, in a state of mind at once composed and happy, sinks into a refreshing sleep lasting until morning, from which he awakens a new man. A mild dose before breakfast and another before going out for the day, will prevent his taking more cold.

VEGETINE,

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the whole System.

Its Medical Properties are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated, that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhoea, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration, and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

PREPARED BY

H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.

What is Vegetine?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep,—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it a fair trial for your complaints, then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it, it has cured me."

VEGETINE, for the complaints for which it is recommended, is having a larger sale throughout the United States than any other one medicine. Why? Vegetine will cure these complaints.

VALUABLE INFORMATION.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the VEGETINE, and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man, and my skin is smooth and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of Vegetine. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the Vegetine's wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

MR. BEECHER'S FUTURE

HIS REMARKS AT THE FRIDAY NIGHT MEETING—HOW DIFFERENT NEWSPAPERS REPORT HIM.

All the New York papers have what purport to be verbatim reports of Mr. Beecher's remarks at the Plymouth church Lecture Room last Friday. The reports of his language differ, but all unite in remarking the wonderful enthusiasm which pervaded the audience, breaking out in spontaneous bursts of applause which Mr. Beecher vainly sought to check. We give below the closing words as reported in the two leading dailies.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

One thing is this, that I hope with all the courtesy and respect, that everybody on earth will think of me just as they choose and whether you think one way or the other I shall not feel angry. I shall not be angered. I accord to other people the most perfect liberty in that respect. In the next place, whatever men may think, this world is so large, there are so many sides to it that it don't lie with you or anybody on the face of the earth to determine my future. That is a matter that lies with me and God; and God and I against the world. [Applause, with cries of "Amen" from various parts of the room.] I don't propose to be put down in any other sense than the sense in which wheat is put down in the soil. However pressed I am, however I am put down, I will come up again. [Applause.] Will you be kind enough to be still. I do not say this merely as a matter of arrogance. I simply say this that by patient continuance in well doing nobody can be put down. I do not care what people think of me. I know what I am. God knows it. He discloses it. But I know that there is love and truthfulness in Him. I don't work for any other reason than that work is sweet to me; and under God's providence I am going to wear out my life; now let me see the man that is going to stop it. It lies with God and with me. Nobody is allowed to vote on it at all. [illegible] and as long as there is ignorance to be enlightened, sympathy to the [illegible], wronged, love for the unloved, pardon for the outlawed, tongues for those who cannot speak for what they want, so long as there are men who need God, so long shall they have my help and labor.

I don't mean that I care for a high place. I went into the wilderness. It was not I who took myself from the wilderness. I did not come here with any ambitious plans or desires. I was sent here. I did not stay here because I had planned it myself. I was kept here by the divine purpose that sent me here. I shall stay as long as God's providence keeps me here. I shall go when God's providence takes me away. I shall die when God decrees me to the other life. Living or dying I am the Lord's. My future is in His hands. I will do it though the thousand devils are in the road. I leave it for Him to judge. That is my future. His name is God and His other name to me is Father, and I have day by day to say, "dear Father, what wilt thou have me to do, that I shall do," and hell and the devil cannot stop it. [Cries of "Amen" and loud clapping of hands.]

Now, Christian brethren, I have said these things to you, and I wish I could have said them with closed doors and windows and without their being reported. Would that I did not know human nature well that they be not reported. But then the thing that is not to be reported is the thing to be reported, and that which ought not to be reported is reported. It would be in vain to ask it. We are an unenviable church in that regard. We live out of doors. Notwithstanding, it was in me to say these things to you, it was in me to say I honor you, I honor you, I love you in your fidelity, in your piety, for your trust, and I am your leader and friend, not by authority, but by the grace of God. And the hold that I have had upon you is received from your confidence in my Christian life. I am a Christian; I am a manly man. I love to honor God. I shall see you there. You shall not be able to shame me, nor I you, but you and I, journeying together in this life, may rise from the earth, sons of righteousness, we shall stand together and meet our congregations. Be of good cheer, dearly beloved, pray, beloved of God, wait, work, believe, and be at rest.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

Mr. Beecher then arose from the chair in which he had been sitting and drawing himself up to his full height, said, in his most emphatic tones: And now by the Grace of God, I am going to say one or two more things. And first, I look with respect upon what this church has done during, and in respect to, the troubles I have spoken of. But I want to say that I fully and entirely accord to every one the same liberty of opinion that I am accustomed to exercise myself. That every one is at perfect liberty to think what he likes about me. Secondly, whatever you may think, or whatever any one in the world may think, this world is so large, and there are so many chances in it that it does not lie with you to determine my future. That is something which lies between God and me and nobody else has any vote in it. I don't propose to be put down by anybody on the face of the earth. [Applause.] I don't propose to be put down in any way except as wheat is sown put into the ground and comes up a hundred fold. [Applause.]

I don't say this arrogantly, but by patient continuance in well-doing no one can be put down. I don't care how things go with me in this life. I know and God knows that the work of my life will go on until my coffin lid is screwed down over my dead body. The world is wide and will not be destitute of opportunities. With you or with some who may need me more than you, I shall continue to work out my life. This lies between God and me. I will by His help work out my life, and I'd like to see the man that will stop it. As long as there is love to be given to those who need it, or sympathy to those in distress, as long as there is a champion needed for the downtrodden, so long as any need God and can't see Him directly, they will see Him reflected in me, if God gives me the power to go on. I do not care for high places. When I began my work I went out into the wilderness. I did not seek to leave it. I was called out. I was called here and I have stayed here under Divine Providence, and here I shall stay till Divine Providence bids me to go. For whether I live or whether I die I am the Lord's first and men's afterward. My sole question is, "What will Thou have me to do." And that I will do, and ten thousand devils shall not stop me. Above the roar and confusion of this world I can hear the voice of God, who is known to me by the dear name of Father, and strengthened by His service I will go on, and hell and the devil can't stop me.

Now Christian brethren, I would have liked to say this with closed doors, and, if I did not know that human nature would understand a request, I would ask that what I have said should not be reported. But the very things that ought not to be reported—that hurt somebody, but hurt no one—are the things that are reported, and it is our misfortune to live as it were out of doors. We admire, we crown our eyes, but it is known and commented on. With admiration and love, we honor you for your faith and trust. I am, and I will be your leader by the grace of God. I hold my position by your confidence. I am manly enough to strive always to be true to God. I shall [illegible] that you are not put to shame in me and after this life when we are purified we shall smile to think of the troubles we passed through below. Be of good cheer, beloved. Wait, work, believe and be at rest.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

FOR GOVERNOR,

SELDEN CONNOR,

OF AUGUSTA.

FITTED TO HIS CASE.

[From the New York Tribune]

Among all the problems and riddles, complications and conundrums, evolved during the past year from the Brooklyn business, there have been some developments of superior traits of character on the part of the plaintiff, and his friends and counsel, which cannot fail to excite the admiration, as well as the astonishment, of the civilized world. They began cropping out with the beginning of the case, and they did not end until the end of the closing argument by the plaintiff's counsel. What could be more beautiful than Mr. Beach's disclaimer of personal unfriendliness toward Mr. Tracy of opposing counsel? In the course of his argument Mr. Beach felt called upon to say that Mr Tracy had been guilty of "professional treachery and personal dishonor," that he had "performed several parts in this drama," "all of them with equal zeal and abandonment," that his opening address was "full of animosity, of denunciation, of untruth," that he was active indefatigable malignant, that he had been guilty of "personal disgrace and professional infamy against which the highest in the land could not stand against an indignant and outraged profession." Under ordinary circumstances, and among ordinary men, such language would be taken as indicating positive unfriendliness. Outside of Brooklyn it would be very liable to lead to estrangement, if not to excite resentment. But Mr Beach in the catholicity of his nature, and with the serenity and sweetness of disposition which appear so conspicuously in Mr. Tilton and his friends speaks of him, notwithstanding all his infamy and treachery and dishonor, as his "respected brother," for whom he has no feeling but that of the utmost kindness, "and of whom he says further "The relations between that gentleman and myself have been entirely cordial, and nothing that has happened or shall happen in this case will interrupt on my part that friendliness of sentiment." To this he adds the remark "And I trust that nothing I shall say will embitter the sentiment of that gentleman toward myself, because he must know that my utterances are extorted by my position."

What could be more charming than this? Or than Mr. Beach's relations with Mr. Beecher? Mr Beach has been engaged now several months in an endeavor to prove Mr Beecher guilty of seducing and debauching the wife of his friend, of hypocrisy, lying, perjury, of a series of crimes which, if he were guilty of them, should place him forever under the ban of decent society and behind prison bars. He has occupied ten days with an argument to the jury, the object of which was to convince them of his guilt. But Mr. Beach does not let a little thing like that impair his friendly relations with this great criminal, or diminish his admiration and reverence for him He says of him.

He is not only great in mind great in learning a great teacher, a great scholar, but he has that wonderful combination which makes man in all his marvelous greatness He has the brain, he has the heart, he has the physical conformation in one harmonious and powerful combination, giving to human nature its highest dignity and its greatest strength and he himself, in one of his memorable letters, exhibits the qualities by which he is thus enabled to trample upon adversity, to resist all the passions which stir the sinner's conscience, and, in the face of the world and in the face of his God, exhibits only those attractive and grand qualities which make him a great preacher and teacher

When a man uses such language in describing a person guilty of adultery, perjury, treachery and hypocrisy, he shows—well, he shows, we would say, great fitness for the position of counsel in a case wherein his client and friends make a tentable topic of seduction and adultery, where the client sits calmly down to a discussion of dates with the seducer of his wife to settle the question of the paternity of his child; where the injured husband acknowledges the receipt of money from the seducer with a benediction, and where upon his theory of the case, no one of the parties to the scandal seems to consider that there is anything wrong, except as it is made public. Mr. Beach seems to have fitted into the case admirably, and to have caught its spirit perfectly.

Gen Roberts' letter accepting the Democratic nomination for Governor, is a very belligerent document—especially for a candidate who emblazons "reconciliation and peace" on his banners. Taken in connection with his speech in acknowledgement of a serenade on the night of his nomination, in which he condemned the law prohibiting drinking-houses and tippling-shops as an invasion of "personal rights," his declaration that this must be a campaign for "individual liberty," is suggestive. When Gen. R. styles the Republicans of Maine as "hirelings," he steps beyond the limit of legitimate political controversy.—[Lewiston Journal.

WENDELL PHILLIPS has just written to an Indiana man with the venerable name of James Buchanan that in his (Phillips') opinion, Buchanan's ideas of finance are about to "revolutionize the relations of capital and labor." We had some curiosity, on seeing this, to know what Mr. Buchanan's financial ideas were, and as Mr. Phillips referred to them as adopted by a convention at Cleveland, Ohio, last March, we took the trouble to look them up. We are sorry to say that we cannot agree with Mr. Phillips' estimate of these ideas. They are in reality nothing but the old notion of a see-saw system of 3.65 bonds interchangeable with greenbacks. Gen Grant dispatched this particular absurdity very neatly when he said that if it did anything it would compel the Government to pay everybody interest on money whenever money could not bring interest in any other way. This is the exact truth, and, for our part, we consider that Mr. Phillips is going back on his friends the working men in accepting this policy. It would really be a policy exclusively for those who had money at the expense of those who have only labor. But the notion can, after all, be acceptable only to that class whom even braying in a mortar would not improve.—N. Y. Times.

A queer pauper case is on trial at Norwich, Conn. The town of Preston claims that the authorities of East Haddam fraudulently and corruptly persuaded Orrin Wade, a Preston pauper, forty-five years old, to marry Sarah Brooks, an East Haddam pauper, sixty-seven years old, in order that East Haddam might be relieved of the expense of caring for her. Of course the Haddamites claim that it was purely a love match, but the fact is, the two separated on the day of their marriage, and have not lived together since.

The ancient city of Castobriga, in [illegible], abandoned by its inhabitants in the 5th century of our era, [illegible] to be abandoned. The [illegible] has [illegible] some years receded, and left the buildings covered with sand, but fresh [illegible] tions. The city was first Phoenician, then Carthaginian, then Roman, and excavation is expected to reveal remains contemporary with Dido.

A continuous session of the court of commissioners of Alabama claims since April 28, adjourned Friday until Sept. 20, next. About 600 cases in all have been disposed of, thus leaving something like 900 yet to hear. By one decision, a few days since, the court swept off a large number of cases in the following classes: First, war premiums; second, prospective catch and the outfit and refit of vessels which had been driven by intimidation of the rebel cruisers or forcibly from actual possession of their fishing grounds; third, vessels that had been blockaded or otherwise forced into foreign ports, by reason of which they and their cargoes were sacrificed under forced sales. Many large and small awards have been made, but none of these can be paid until the close of the labors of the tribunal. It is believed that the entire amount to be awarded by the present court upon good cases will not exceed $5,000,000.

Harvard College is color mad. One of its societies, known as the Dog Fanciers' Union, has had all its dogs dyed a deep crimson, and is going to take them to the Saratoga regatta. It is said that the more enthusiastic students have taken down their atlases, turning to the map of Italy, erased Magenta and written in its place Crimson, and that they talk of the great victory won by the French over the Austrians at Crimson, and call it a triumph for Harvard.

American iron selling in Wolverhampton at $35 a ton! Well, well! This is dreadful to be sure. So it seems that the tariff does not shut out our goods from foreign markets, and that we are actually competing with John Bull's free trade iron in his own little island. It is true, we have not built up a great business in American iron in England as yet, but if ten tons can be sold at a profit there, why not a hundred thousand tons? We presume it will be found that the iron mentioned in the cable despatch is from Georgia, and that it was sent out at a low rate of freight, in order to steady Savannah cotton ships. This however, does not affect the case materially. Pennsylvania iron can be shipped just as well, and in large quantities too, if reasonable terms can be obtained with the workmen. Indeed, we shall not be surprised if the era of low prices, which is setting in much more rapidly than superficial observers suppose, results in a great growth of exports of manufactured articles in the sale of which Great Britain has long enjoyed an almost undisputed monopoly.—Boston Advertiser.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The Ohio Liberal, controlled by General Brinkerhoff, supports the Democratic ticket, but denounces the Democratic State candidates, on account of the financial plank in their platform, and supports the Republican State ticket.

The German press of Ohio is a good deal disgusted at the Democratic platform in that State and several of the journals strongly urge their readers to do nothing to secure the election of the tickets which stand upon such rank heresies.

During his recent short stay in Indianapolis, Postmaster-General Jewell succeeded in reducing the running expenses of the Post Office in that city $20,500, chiefly by the discharge of superfluous clerks.

Tweed said the other day "I want it distinctly understood that I am as good a Democrat to-day as I ever was!" Certainly he is and if it was not for outside public opinion, the Democracy would give the Boss the old place in the party.

A number of Indiana towns are at dagger-points. Some of them didn't get any of Friday's earthquake, and others did. The airs put on by the towns that felt it are almost insufferable, the citizens going about with their hats on the side of their heads, and their cigars on a line with the zenith.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Pittsburg Chronicle suggests that as either victory or defeat of the Ohio Democracy involves the ruin of the party nationally, it would be well for them to adjourn before election day arrives. It will be just as well to have them dismissed by the people of Ohio.

The cities of Missouri fare hardly in the State Constitutional Convention. Twenty-four counties, with a population of more than half that of the whole State, have been accorded a representation of fifty-three in the State House of Representatives, the rest of the State taking ninety.

We are glad to see so good a paper as the Indianapolis Journal talking such sense as this: "No man will ever be elected President who openly favors unlimited expansion and consequent depreciation of the currency, or who favors a policy whose logical conclusion is general repudiation of the nation's obligations."

"Templeton," in his last letter to the Hartford Courant, has the following with regard to the Ohio Democratic platform:

"The cursed fools of our party are getting ready to throw away all our chances again," said a despondent member of this party to me the day the news arrived. "We ought to have been in power eight years ago, but this seemed a chance we couldn't lose—and it is going."

Three-Card Monte—Business Changes and Improvements—Accidents—Various other Matters.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

WINN, June 26.

Slim Jim and "Prof." Haines were operating three-card monte circus day, June 24, at Danforth. Several were fleeced, and among others, a well-known, unsuspecting citizen, formerly of Pattagumpus, got ten dollars' worth of wisdom from sad experience. They, with their female companions, escaped the next day, after ineffectual attempts by the irate Pattagumpusian to arrest them; but their companions were short of funds to transport themselves by train to Bangor, nor were Slender Jim and the Professor forthcoming in that respect.

E. R. Foy, of Danforth, severely put his ankle out of joint on the 25th while taking down the circus bill-boards. Dr. Merrill, of Lee, attended him.

NEW MAGAZINES.

The June number of the ART JOURNAL has for its frontispiece a steel engraving of Wensleydale Cave in Yorkshire, from the painting of Turner. The other full-page plates are Chatterton's Half Holiday after W. B. Morris, and Gleaning in Belgium from a painting by Jean Francois Millet. The Studies and Sketches by Sir Edwin Landseer are continued, and we have also three good examples of the works of George Adolphus Storey, with a notice by James Dafforne. The Stately Homes of England, by Messrs. S. C. Hall and Jewett, is a continuation of the description, so beautifully illustrated, of Trentham, Staffordshire, one of the seats of the Duke of Sutherland. American subjects, valuable by contrast and of especial interest, occupy a large space. There is a further illustration of Hudson River scenery by Mr. Woodward, with views of West Point, the Indian Falls, ruins of Fort Putnam, the Crow Nest, and a sketch of Idlewild the former home of N. P. Willis. The papers on American painters are continued with a notice of J. D. Hart and engravings from two of his landscapes, Cattle going Home, and A Summer Day on the Boquet River, in which the engraver has done good justice to the original. One page is devoted to A. Anker's Femme Lacustre, and there are notices of Mr. Church's new painting, Valley of Santa Isabel, as well as of the exhibitions of the Royal Academy and the Paris Salon, besides some local notes. Gleaning in Belgium, a beautiful steel engraving, is accompanied with a memoir and portrait of the artist, Jean Francois Millet, together with a wood engraving from La Petite Bergere, another of his works which has attracted much notice. One or two articles of minor importance that we need not mention, complete a number which well justifies all that has been hitherto said in favor of this publication. Messrs. D. Appleton & Co., Publishers, New York.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE BROOKLYN TRIAL

THE JURY STILL OUT.

All Sorts of Rumors Afloat.

MRS. BEECHER'S ILLNESS DENIED.

Notes from the Jury.

LARGE GATHERING IN COURT.

What Judge Morris says of Loader's, Price's, Moulton's and Tilton's Indictments.

NEW YORK, June 28 8 A. M. Judge Morris says neither Beecher nor his counsel have taken any steps for the indictment of Loader and Price and further that the indictments found against Tilton and Moulton were too much for Beecher's adherents. It would be a long time before the counsel for defence would care to move their trial and a still longer time before Beecher would care to go on the witness stand again.

The Rumored Illness of Mrs Beecher

The rumor of Mrs. Beecher's illness is authoritatively denied. She was in good health on Saturday, although suffering from the fatigue incident to her close attendance in the court room and she observed yesterday as a day of rest.

A Reported Interview with Mr Beecher

In an interview at Peekskill Saturday Beecher stated relative to the jury that there is but one man standing out. We were warned about him long ago. Judge Neilson will keep the Jurors out for six weeks if necessary to induce them to bring in a verdict. Beecher said he knew who the man was and that Judge Neilson could not afford to let the Jury disagree.

Large Gathering in the Court-Room

BROOKLYN, June 28. There was a large gathering in the Brooklyn Court House this morning. Unusual excitement was noticeable, a rumor having got into circulation that the Jury had resolved to come down and see the Judge. Eight or ten ladies and twice as many gentlemen of Plymouth church were admitted to the court at 9.30. Tilton came into court at 10 o'clock and sat alone in the ante-chamber, and spoke to no one unless addressed, and then only in monosyllables.

The Proceedings in Court.

At 10.30 Judge Neilson came into Court and took up the ordinary business of the circuit court. At his appearance the Judge smiled, and beckoned him up to the bench. Instantly there was a rush to front seats on which the Judge said: "Gentlemen there is no occasion for anything of that kind." A note was handed to the Judge shortly after Evarts' interview with him [illegible]. A few minutes after Morris and Shearman came in representing the plaintiff and defendant and, after a brief consultation with the Judge they took up pens, signed a paper and retired. At 1 o'clock the Court took a recess till 1.45.

Note from the Jury.

At the adjournment it was ascertained that the note to the Judge was from the Jury, and that he sent a reply. He refused to tell what it was all about, and cautioned counsel about being communicative. There is much mystery about what is taking place, but it is the general belief that counsel want the Judge to call in the Jury, and that he refuses to interfere.

In the Jury Room

There were no discussions among the jury to-day. They occupied themselves in lounging, smoking, and sometimes getting up walking matches a la Weston up to 1 o'clock. Shortly before 1 o'clock the Court was adjourned for ordinary business. The plaintiff's counsel followed the Judge to his private room and a few minutes later the Judge sent a message for Shearman.

Reported that there Was No Prospect of an Agreement.

The Judge states that counsel cannot agree about calling down the jury, and that he will not send for them until counsel agree upon it or until the Judge summons them. There is no prospect of the jury arriving at a verdict.

4 P. M.—No verdict yet.

A Raft of Rumors.

Another communication from the jury was received at 3.30, the nature of which is unknown.

The air is full of rumors, amongst which may be mentioned that signals were exchanged to-day between agents of the defence and some jurors. That Hon. Morris is said to have said (which is probably true) that if there is a disagreement he will at once apply for a new trial and put in the new evidence, and further that still another witness has been discovered in the person of a lady who lived in Livingston street two years ago and several times saw Beecher enter Tilton's house with a night key.

The crowd laughed boisterously this evening when they saw the jury come down from their room on the top floor to the General Sessions Court. The foreman (Carpenter) led the van in his shirt sleeves and carrying a carpet bag stuffed with his cast-off linen. Nearly all the jury had their coats and all carried bundles. It is said they are fed like fighting cocks.

The general expectation is that the parties to the suit are so tired of it that the jury will be sent for to-morrow evening if they do not come in of their own accord, and that they will be discharged.

The jury have given up discussing the merits of the case for some time, judging from their movements as watched by reporters from windows fronting the court house, and to-day they smoked, dined, played games and got up walking matches.

Most of the rumors afloat are not worth mentioning. However, it may be stated that late this evening it was generally believed that eight for Beecher and four for Tilton would be the result.

Statements of the Brooklyn Argus.

The Brooklyn Argus is informed by a member of Plymouth church that a strong element in the church is ready to demand the impeachment of H. C. Bowen. The same paper says, in what it calls the best authority, that the request of the jury for evidence and parts of evidence was objected to by one of the lawyers of the defence.

The Jury Out for Another Night.

Judge Neilson left the court room at 5 o'clock, having given instructions that should the jury come to an agreement before 9 he should be sent for, but on no condition would he return to the court house after that hour. The jury supped at 8 o'clock and then retired to their usual resting place for the night. Shortly after 10 o'clock the court was locked up.

NEW YORK CITY.

The Union Pacific vs. John Duff, of Boston.

NEW YORK, June 28. The Tribune says John Duff, of Boston, has long been known in connection with the Union Pacific Railroad and has been a Director and an officer and still is a trustee of the land grant mortgage. It is alleged that Duff, while acting as trustee, selling lands, etc., received a large amount of money which he handled as if it were his own private property. Shortly after the panic the company needed ready money, Duff, it is said, supplied the railroad with the money representing that it was his own, and charged heavy rates of interest. The officers of the company discovering the facts demanded the return of this interest, and failing to get it have begun a suit against Duff for $30,000 and interest. The summons in the case have already been served, but pending the service of other papers a meeting of the Directors was held, at which B. E. Bates, Elisha Atkins and F. Gordon Dexter, of Boston, were appointed a committee to investigate the matter with a view to the adjustment of the complications. Duff claims that the company owes him a large amount for services rendered as trustee, larger indeed than the amount claimed from him, and he desires a settlement on that basis. One result of the matter will be the retirement of Mr. Duff from the position of trustee of the land grant mortgage. Duff appears to be retiring from nearly all his interests in the Union Pacific Railroad and its subsidiary enterprises, one of his latest operations being the transfer of his interests in the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company.

Eighteen houses were blown down and demolished, and as many more injured, besides outhouses, barns, etc. Four persons were killed: Charles Pike, his infant child, Mrs. Frederick Rantheneeker and Richard Bates, a boy ten years old. The latter was blown nearly one hundred feet through the air, and fell into an elm tree from which he fell fifty feet to the earth. Ten or twelve others were very badly injured, and some will not recover. The tornado was accompanied by a crashing noise heard over the whole city. It followed a violent rain-storm, which had just cleared away. The debris of houses was strewed over the city for miles.

MISS KELLOGG. Of Miss Fannie I. Kellogg, the soprano who is to sing in City Hall next Thursday night, at the Mendelssohn concert, the Boston Journal says:

"Miss Kellogg is a singer of marked excellence. Her voice is a noble one, both in quality and quantity, and cultivated up to a fine point, as the rendering of Handel's 'Let the Bright Seraphim' plainly showed. Any one who can sing with large manner, perfect intonation, distinct and finished execution, the rapid passages in that song is a singer worthy of mention among the really few capable of such performance. The young lady sang two ballads in a style and manner which warrant the prediction that she will excel also in that direction. Responding to an encore, she sang a concert polka in which were feats of execution of unusual difficulty, also performed with apparent ease and grace. We must not omit to mention that in her personal appearance Miss Kellogg has all the added attractions of youth and good looks."

VEGETINE
Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the whole System.
ITS MEDICAL PROPERTIES ARE
ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

[illegible]

PREPARED BY
H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.

What is Vegetine?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it a fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it; it has cured me."

VEGETINE for the complaints for which it is recommended, is having a larger sale throughout the United States than any other one medicine. Why? Vegetine will cure these complaints.

VALUABLE INFORMATION.
BOSTON, Dec. 12, 18[illegible]

Gentlemen—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the VEGETINE, and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man, and my skin is smooth and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of Vegetine. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the Vegetine's wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

THE GRAVE YARD.

Speak as in dreams, but with anxious thoughts,
My footsteps linger o'er this lonely spot,
To whom belongs this lowly bed?
"The dead."

Enter thou in, my soul, why shouldst thou fear?
Naught but sweet buds and flowers are blooming here.
Whence comes the emblem for these sweet perfumes?
"From tombs."

See here, O mind, whereall thy paths must end,
However varied be the way they wend,
Listen! the dead have speech, aye, hear them and
"To dust."

Where are the mighty who take life by storm?
Who unto Heaven's heights wild wishes form,
What crest the ravens on yon moss-grown wall?
"Buried all."

Where are the dear ones in Death's cold sleep lying
To whom Love swore a memory undying?
What wait you cypress trees?—oh, hear'st thou not?
"Forgot."

To see where these ones passed did no eye crave
May no wild longing pierce beyond the grave?
The fir trees shake their weird heads one by one "None, none."

The evening wind amid the trees is sighing
Fettered in dreams, my saddened soul is lying
The twilight falls, the red glow paleth fast—
"The past."

PHYSICIANS CORNERED.

I suppose there is not in the whole of a physician's experience anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy and pity to such an extent as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal suffering from that fearful disease Rheumatism. Heretofore there has been considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease; some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissue of the system and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied and rejoice more than the conscientious physician who has found out that a true cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a Portland gentleman cannot fail to satisfy all that the

Diamond Rheumatic Cure

is a wonderful Medical Discovery.

PORTLAND, Dec 14, 1874.

Prof. Alphonse Hiller

Dear Sir: Unsolicited by you, I wish to bear testimony to the efficacy of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. During the past year I have suffered greatly from that common and agonizing affliction Rheumatism. My shoulder was so affected, that my left arm was powerless and I despaired of ever again having the use of that limb. I was induced by hearing of the many marvellous cures accomplished by the agent while staying at the Preble House to buy a bottle. It is sufficient to say that without faith in the medicine or its results, by the taking of five small bottles I was entirely relieved. And weeks have since elapsed, and I am still all right and free from pain, with no indication of its return and the feeling of new life I experience I attribute to the use of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have the kindness to pass my testimony and experience around for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Yours truly
CYRUS HANSCOM, Temple st

FURTHER PROOF.

CAPE ELIZABETH Nov 12, 1874

Prof Alphonse Hiller

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have been a tortured sufferer from inflammatory Rheumatism for the past three years, and during the last year my sufferings have been beyond description. I have tried everything I could hear of but obtained no relief until I tried the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. It was truly a wonderful remedy. Respectfully yours,
AMANDA M. BROWN.

Mrs Capt Waldon is witness to this statement.

The discovery of this medicine startled the sages of the hospitals of London and Paris for the past twenty years, making rheumatism a specialty and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease. In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic case it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles. Put up and prepared for the Mass. Laboratory Association by F. W. CONNER, 143 Court St., Boston. For sale everywhere. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to the wholesale agents,

Pleasant and Effectual Cure FOR RHEUMATISM & NEURALGIA.

This remedy is the result of the remarkable case of the proprietor, who had been a great sufferer for years, and who had tried all the advertised remedies and the skill of many physicians without obtaining relief. A radical cure was obtained, and numerous similar cures effected among his friends and acquaintances without an exception, have induced him to put it before the public. It was not got up without a thought of making it an article of merchandise, but the numerous and increasing demands for it, as its merits have become known, have induced him to advertise it for the benefit of sufferers like himself.

It is an infallible remedy, if persistently used, for those painful maladies of Rheumatism and Neuralgia, as testimonials, too abundant to give in this advertisement, will show. Among these testimonials are those of Mrs. Judge Appleton, E. M. Talcott, J. M. Morrill, (foreman of Hinckley and Holt's Foundry,) C. H. Emery, and others of Bangor, W. J. Mitchell, (of the Kineo House, Moosehead Lake,) Alvardo E. Orcutt, of Eddington, a sufferer for fourteen years, and at times helpless, having tried the best known remedies and three skilful physicians without effect, after using seven bottles, has been restored to health, and gives his grateful testimonial.

It is an internal remedy, acting on the blood, freeing it from impurities and imparting free and healthy action to the system. It may be used by children and those of the most delicate constitution with perfect safety. Full directions with each bottle.

Price per bottle $1 00. Liberal discount to the trade. For sale by Druggists generally.

THE NEW REMINGTON SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINES,

Manufactured at the Celebrated REMINGTON ARMORY, Ilion, N. Y., are the Latest and Best.

The REMINGTON SEWING MACHINES are rapidly becoming general favorites, wherever introduced. While it is not our purpose to underrate any other machine, we do claim that the REMINGTON is so complete as to overcome all the principal objections urged against Shuttle Sewing Machines. That which has long been sought after by probably every Sewing Machine Company, has been obtained in the REMINGTON, namely: an even, round, bird's-eye stitch on all kinds of goods, coarse or fine, without the use of COG-WHEEL GEARS, ROTARY CAMS, or LEVERS; and smoothness, ease, and silence in working. Its perfection of Design and Manufacture makes it the simplest, the most speedy, the most durable in the market.

Manufacturers of Clothing, Shoes, etc., etc., will find just what they want in our No. 2 Machine, which is superior to all others.

All kinds of second hand Machines exchanged and sold on time, on the most reasonable terms. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays and Sundays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M. Also open evenings from 8½ to 9 P. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post-Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $33 50 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE

BOUTELLE & BURR, Proprietors

C. A. BOUTELLE, Editor

In announcing the Forty-second Volume of this standard Newspaper, the Proprietors beg leave to state that during the past year they have incurred large expense in thoroughly refitting their establishment, and are determined to spare no effort in maintaining its high character as

The Leading Journal

EASTERN MAINE.

We have now one of the best appointed newspaper offices in the State, have made important additions to our Editorial, Reportorial and Correspondence corps, and are in every way prepared to furnish our patrons with a

FIRST CLASS DAILY NEWSPAPER.

With facilities at our command we hope to make this favorite newspaper more interesting and acceptable during the coming year than ever before. Our connection with the ASSOCIATED PRESS by which we receive the whole of their despatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

Full Reports

of the proceedings of Congress, the State Legislature, meetings of Agricultural Societies and other public bodies, carefully corrected Financial and Market Reports, a reliable Shipping List, original and selected Stories and Poetry, a large amount of instructive and entertaining Miscellany, and a very full department of

News of This Section and the State.

In politics the paper will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. While fearless and outspoken in its treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what it believes to be right, it will avoid intolerance and make its appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of political events of important bearing upon the future of the country, and it will be our aim to keep our readers thoroughly informed, and to favor such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people. The great interests of

AGRICULTURE AND MANUFACTURES

of Maine will receive special attention and all the influence of the paper will be exerted in stimulating the growth and prosperity of our beloved State. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will find

A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being among the best classes of the people, and as this paper affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine. On the first of January the paper will appear in

The Only Morning Daily East of the Kennebec.

An Entirely New Dress,

but with all its best features retained and with such improvements as we trust will insure an increase of that support which it has hitherto enjoyed.
